Income tax realised from corporates

*69. SHRINILOTPAL BASU: Will the Minister of FINANCE be pleased to state:

(a) the amount of income-tax, corporate tax, tax on dividend and all other direct taxes realisable from corporates and other affluent sections of the society during the last three years, year-wise under each category;

(b) the unrealised tax revenue as percentage of GDP and assessment of Government as to how much fiscal deficit could have been brought down had these revenues been collected during the corresponding period, year-wise; and

(c) whether there is a need for reformulating priorities in 'economic reform' process in the light of the magnitude of the unrealised revenue?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF FINANCE (SHRI GINGEE N. RAMACHANDRAN): (a) As per the information available the position of realisable direct taxes (taxes in arrears) in the last three years is as under—

(Rs. in crores)

Financial Year	Taxes in Arrears
1998-99	44143
1999-2000	52970
2000-2001	59425

(b) The unrealised tax revenue as percentage of GDP in the last three years is as under:—

Financial Year	Unrealised tax revenue as Percentage of GDP
1998-99	2.54
1999-2000	2.75
2000-2001	2.85

Though it is not possible to collect the entire taxes in arrear in one year, the fiscal deficit could have been brought down had these arrears been collected as indicated below:—

(Rs. in crores)

Year	GDP	Fiscal Deficit	% age	Arrear	Fiscal Deficit if arrear were col!5ected	% age over GDP
1998-99	1740935	103737	5.96	44143	59594	3.42
J 999-2000	1929641	104717	5.43	52970	51747	2.68
2000-2001	2087988	111972	5.36	59425	52547	2.52

(c) 'Economic reforms' is an on going process under which various aspects of tax administration are periodically reviewed and re-formulated. The Government are aware of the magnitude of the arrear demand and steps, both legislative and administrative have been taken to liquidate the outstanding taxes.

Export of onions from Kamataka

*70. SHRI K. RAHMAN KHAN: Will the Minister of COMMERCE AND INDUSTRY be pleased to state:

(a) whether State Government of Kamataka has requested Government to allow export of onion through Kamataka Government agencies; and

(b) if so, the quantity of onion allowed for export through Government agencies for the year 2001- 2002 and 2002-2003?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF COMMERCE AND INDUSTRY (SHRI RAJIV PRATAP RUDI): (a) and (b) Government of Kamataka had requested for the appointment of two Cooperative Agencies as additional canalising agencies, one for Bangalore Rose Onion and the other for other varieties.

Bangalore Rose onion, though canalised, can be exported freely without any restriction. The allocation of other variety of onion through these agencies in 2001-02 so far has been 26,500 MTs. As for 2002-03, the question of allocation does not arise at this stage.
